

Tyson Salinas

Tyson Salinas is a graduate of The Hartt School (CT) with degrees in Viola Performance and Music Education. Currently, he performs throughout Southeast Texas in orchestral/chamber music settings and maintains a large private studio in Sugarland, TX. He has formerly served in Orchestra and Band director positions in Waterbury, CT and Katy, TX and performed in the viola section with orchestras throughout New England.