

Samantha Arizpe is a violinist and music educator in the Greater Houston area. She holds degrees in violin performance from the University of Houston and her masters from Florida State University under the tutelage of Dr. Shannon Thomas.

As an educator, she has served as a faculty artist for the American Festival of the Arts Chamber Academy and summer festival, CODA, and Melody music programs for the Houston Youth Symphony. Samantha also worked in partnership with DeLUXE KIDS In Harmony with the Houston Symphony in Partnership with AFA as faculty artist.

Samantha began her musical journey as a mariachi musician and ballet folklórico dancer. She has had the opportunity to perform for the Latin Grammys, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Mariachi Competition, Mariachi Espectacular de Albuquerque, and has accompanied Latin artists such as the Grammy-award winning Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlán, Amanda Miguel, Jorge Celedón, Diego Verdaguer, and Yolanda del Río.

Samantha serves as section violin for the Northwest Florida Symphony Orchestra and assistant principal second in the Galveston Symphony Orchestra. She has also performed with Sinfonia Gulf Coast and the Tallahassee Symphony Orchestra.