

Jennifer Alger - Bio

Recognized throughout South and Southeast Texas, violist/ violinist Jennifer Alger is a seasoned performer, teacher, and coach. The former Principal violist of the Lake Charles Symphony Orchestra in Louisiana, Alger currently performs with the symphony orchestras of Corpus Christi, Victoria, and Symphony of Southeast Texas. A respected TMEA clinician, she regularly leads workshops and teaching sessions in Fort Bend ISD.

With over two decades of private teaching in Sugar Land, Texas, her students are frequently accepted into Region Orchestras and selected for the Texas All-State Orchestra. A student of Rita Porfiris and Wayne Brooks at the University of Houston Moores School of Music, Alger has also been deeply mentored over the summers by Karen Ritscher.